

Kid Basketball

By: Davon Chen and Xiaochen Xu

During class, the kids do different basketball activities to improve their basketball skills while having a fun time. The students work on basketball skills including dribbling, shooting, and passing, and as the year progresses, they may scrimmage against each other. With commitment from the students and their positive attitudes, they will be able to greatly improve their basketball skills.